IF THESE BOOKS AREN'T
AT YOUR LIBRARY....
BREATHE A SIGH OF RELIEF!

Any not owned by your library can be inter-library loaned from other libraries throughout the area, either by asking your librarian or by using your library card and the online catalog, STARCat.

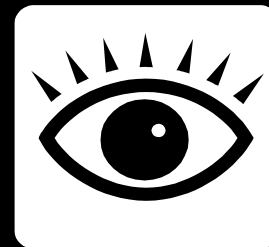

But WHY would you want to read such sad stories filled with woe?! Remember, there is nothing stopping you from reading something happy!

A Series of Unfortunate Events
by Lemony Snicket

The Prospero

From the very beginning (bad beginnings, of course), Lemony Snicket has repeatedly warned readers NOT to read his tales about the sad, disastrous misery that follows the Baudelaire orphans—Violet, Sunny and Klaus.

Heed his advice! Don't read ANY of the following books!

Quick! Put this bibliography (a word that here means a list of books you shouldn't read) down! You can choose to read something happy with a happy ending (if you like that sort of thing)!

- The Bad Beginnings (Book 1)
- The Reptile Room (Book 2)
- The Wide Window (Book 3)
- The Miserable Mill (Book 4)
- The Austere Academy (Book 5)
- The Ersatz Elevator (Book 6)
- The Vile Village (Book 7)
- The Hostile Hospital (Book 8)
- The Carnivorous Carnival
(Book 9)
- The Slippery Slope (Book 10)
- The Grim Grotto (Book 11)
- The Penultimate Peril (Book 12)
- The End (Book 13)
- Lemony Snicket: The Unauthorized Autobiography
