

Allegany County Public Library Association

Whitesville Library

March 10, 20115

Present: Christine Gallmann - Angelica, Nic Gunning – Wellsville, Liz Van Houter – Almond, Brian Hidreth and Al Oliveras from STLS, Madeline Gasdik and Cheryl Czworka from the Office for the Aging, Ruth Bancroft – Canaseraga, Brenda Witter – Little Genesee, Roxanne Baker – Fillmore, Judy Johnson – Richburg, Karen Smith – Whitesville

Call to order: The meeting was called to order by President Karen Smith. Minutes were reviewed and Judy Johnson motioned to accept the minutes, seconded by ?

New Business: Office for the Aging wants to start delivering books to home bound senior citizen. This has already been started in Almond. The books would be delivered to the lunch centers. Then volunteers would deliver the books with the lunches. People who eat at the centers could check out books at the lunch center. Madeline Gasdik and Cheryl C from the Office for the Aging explained the program to us.

Al Oliveras, from STLS, explained Email Etiquette to us. Remember to get rid of deleted mail. He also showed us the STLS Learning Portal. He encouraged us to subscribe to it.

Margo Gustina is working on a digital literacy service grant. We will be hearing more about this in the future.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, June 9th, in Friendship.