

Prattsburgh NY, Library Director

The Prattsburg Free Library has an opening for the position of Library Director on January 1st, 2018.

The Prattsburg Free Library is nestled in New York's Finger Lakes area. Just 10 minutes from Keuka Lake and 40 Minutes from Corning, NY, we serve a community of over 2000 people.

If you are a high energy person with excellent interpersonal skills, including supervision, management and delegation skills, you may be the person our library is looking for.

While an associate's degree or a 4 year degree is preferred, candidates with relevant experience will be considered. Can you work closely with Friends of the Library and instill excitement about our vision, as well as the importance of their support?

A major prerequisite is tech proficiency including search, circulation, social networks, cloud, mobile technology, knowledge of software and applications such as Excel, etc.

Do you have experience with grant writing? Are you able to manage using excellent organizational skills?

Although we are a small library, we are a progressive Board. We are dedicated to serving our rural community with exciting services.
