STEAM Storytimes

This session will provide information for libraries of all sizes and budgets looking to design their own S.T.E.A.M.-focused storytimes and other hands-on children's programs. The session will introduce participants to a variety of programs from Tompkins County Public Library: "Sensory Science," "Maker Kids," "S.T.E.A.M. Crafternoon," as well as strategies for integrating S.T.E.A.M. into passive programming and outreach visits. Learn about TCPL's favorite picture book-to-activity connections and how to offer open-ended activities for a variety of ages and abilities.

Presented by Kate DeVoe

Kate DeVoe is the Youth Services Librarian at the Tompkins County Public Library, Ithaca, NY. Kate's specialty seems to be messy STEAM experiments and other things we used to think we couldn't do in libraries. She loves outreach visits, especially when she has a funny picture book to share.

Panel Discussion on Pop-Up Libraries

What does it mean to be a pop-up library? We think it means being in a place that isn't the 'normal' library. Join your colleagues in this lively discussion about pop-up libraries and library services.

Presented by your colleagues from around the System

WorkFlows Tips & Tricks - Take 2

Join us and learn more about WorkFlows – and a bit about STARCAt too! We'll cover basic WorkFlows set-up information and share our own tips, tricks, and recommendations to get the most out of the software. We will also talk about a couple of new features coming later in the year. Please bring your own tips and tricks to share with the group.

Presented by Mandy Fleming & STLS ILS Staff

Mandy Fleming is the ILS and Technical Services Manager at STLS.

PROGRAM GROUP 2

10:30 - 11:45 AM

Oh! Bedbugs! What NOW?!

A local expert on pest control teaches us how to respond those pesky bedbugs in your library.

Presented by Gary Oliver, Ehrlich Pest Control

Implicit Bias

How can someone's race, sex, age, and other characteristics influence the way we see and treat them even when we are genuinely trying to be unbiased? What concrete steps can we take to help prevent this from happening? To help answer these questions, this workshop introduces the concept of implicit bias. We will explore some harmful side effects of how our brains naturally perceive, categorize, & draw inferences about the world, including other people.

Presented by Fabina Colon, Multicultural Resources Center

Fabina B. Colon is the Director of the Multicultural Resource Center (MRC), a small non-profit organization working on cultural and systemic change in Tompkins County. Fabina is a native of Peru and moved to Tompkins County along with her family at the age of 9. She is passionate about multicultural education, sustaining indigenous knowledge and values, and employing arts and culture as vehicles for community-building and social change.

BLUEcloud Analytics Introduction

It's here! We now have BLUEcloud Analytics – the long awaited (and awesome) replacement for Director's Station. BCA is a powerful reporting tool for running reports and gathering statistics on collections, users, circulation – anything done in WorkFlows. STLS staff are still learning about the tool but we want to show you what it can do! We'll also be looking for input from you – the future users.

Presented by Ken Behn & Mandy Fleming

Ken Behn is the Assistant Director - Information Technology at STLS & Mandy Fleming is the ILS and Technical Services Manager at STLS.

PROGRAM GROUP 3

1:00 - 2:15 PM

LGBTQ Community

Learn how your library can be more welcoming through the experiences of the Olean Public and Cuba Circulating Libraries. These organizations are creating a more welcoming environment for the LGBTQIA community with programs, resources, and staff training.

Presented by Tina Dalton & Jennifer Stickles

Tina Dalton serves as the Library Director of the Cuba Circulating Library in Cuba, NY. Previously, Tina worked at the Olean Public Library and St. Bonaventure University. Tina is a founding member of the New York Library Association's LGBTQIA Roundtable and currently serves as the treasurer for this group.

Jennifer Stickles began serving as the Library Manager of the Salamanca Public Library in April 2019. Previously she worked as the Head of Youth and Adult Programs at the Olean Public Library. While not at the library, Jennifer also serves as the President of the newly founded New York Library Association's LGBTQIA Roundtable.

Sexual Harassment Prevention Training

Do you still need to complete the mandated sexual harassment training to meet the legal requirements? Now is the time to do it!

Presented by Kimberlee Middaugh

Kimberlee Balok Middaugh was born and raised in Elmira, N.Y. She received her B.S. from SUNY Geneseo and her J.D. from Albany Law School. She began practicing law in 2000 with her father at Balok Law Office in Elmira, NY.

Using the Libby App

Don't miss this chance to gain insight into all the exciting ways we're helping your library Create Reading Happiness. We'll work with Libby, the one-tap app designed to get your users reading as quickly and seamlessly as possible. We'll also dive into marketing and outreach tools, all geared toward helping you serve more readers with more titles as flexibly as possible.

Presented by Kristin Preyss, Account Manager, Rakuten OverDrive

Since 2012, Kristin Preyss has been partnering with public libraries to streamline access to digital materials using OverDrive. Kristin is currently working with libraries in New York & New England to set and achieve circulation and usage goals while making the shift into digital.

PROGRAM GROUP 4

2:30 - 3:45 PM

Southern Tier Stories: An Oral History Project

Storytelling is an excellent way to connect patrons and record community history. Learn how to use storytelling to facilitate our own regional oral history project!

Presented by Lyndsie Guy

Lyndsie Guy is the Resource Consultant at STLS.

Is your password nJpX5~br6V/T/$?

What makes a good password in 2019? We'll take a look at how to create and remember good passwords. We'll also explore some cyber reminders on why not to use passwords in more than one place.

Presented by Pat Beeman & Ken Behn

Ken Behn is the Assistant Director - Information Technology at STLS, and Pat Beeman is the Information Technology Specialist at STLS.

Making on a Budget

The name says it all! Connect with colleagues from around the system as they demo 'making' to share with your community.
