

AGENDA

- I. Cost Share - Impacts on Service (Freegal)
 - II. Purchasing Pre-order Titles in OverDrive
 - III. Summary of Publisher Lending Models [see below]
 - IV. Macmillan Boycott
 - V. Recommendation for DAC on ebook vs audiobook spending
-

Publisher Lending Models as of (11/1/2019):

1. Lending Models for Big 5 Publishers:

- a. Penguin Random House ebooks: MA by 24 months
- b. Penguin Random House audiobooks: OC/OU

- c. HarperCollins ebooks: MA by 26 checkout
- d. HarperCollins audiobooks: OC/OU

- e. Simon & Schuster ebooks: MA by 24 months
- f. Simon & Schuster audiobooks: MA by 24 months

- g. Hachette ebooks: MA by 24 months
- h. Hachette audiobooks: MA by 24 months

i. Macmillan ebooks (effective 11/1/19):

- i. OC/OU available at publication, up to 8 weeks post publication date.
ONE COPY PER LIBRARY SYSTEM
- ii. After 8 weeks, MA by 24 months

Summary: You can buy ONE OC/OU copy for $30 when the title comes out. You can only buy one within those 8 weeks. After those 8 weeks are up, you will not have the opportunity to get the title in OC/OU again. After the title has been on the market for 8 weeks, you can buy as many copies of the title as you want for $60, but they will now be MA by 24 months. After the title has been out for a year, the price will drop to $40 but they will remain MA by 24 months.

j. Macmillan Audiobooks: OC/OU

Here are several other big publishers that are MA (Metered Access):

- k. WW Norton ebooks—MA for 52 checkouts OR 24 months from date of purchase
- l. Scholastic ebooks—MA for 24 months
- m. Pottermore ebooks—MA for 52 checkouts OR 24 months from date of purchase
- n. Pottermore audiobooks—MA for 60 months

All other content is available in OC/OU.